Obituary

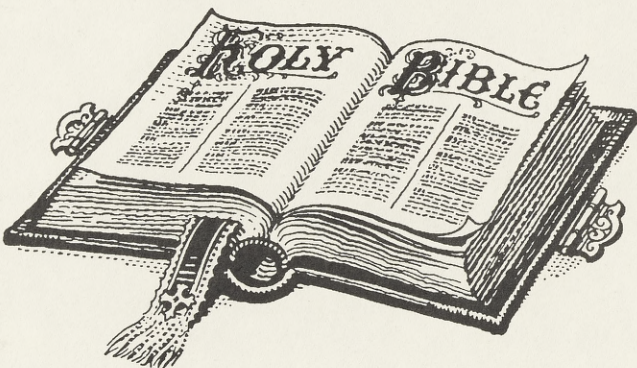

"By and by when the morning come, when all of the saints of God will be gathering home; we will tell the story of how we overcome; we will understand it better by and by."

Jeanetta E. Rice was born to the proud mother, Lillie Rhodes on February 14, 1926 in Hamburgh, Arkansas. She attended the public schools in Bastrop, Louisiana and completed her literary education in Minden, Louisiana. She was an avid church attendee all of her young life and was converted at an early age in the Second Baptist Church in Bastrop, Louisiana. In 1943, she moved with her mother to Oakland, California where she lived until her passing. After coming to California she continued her education by attending the Aircraft Mechanic School in Alameda, California In May 1946 she met and married her present spouse, the Reverend James Rice. To this union, four children were born, one son and three lovely daughters. Jeanetta attended the St. John Missionary Baptist Church of Oakland, where she and her husband served under the spiritual guidance of the pastor and founder, Reverend Carl J. Anderson.

later in 1955 she and her husband visited the "Germany Chapel" Church of God in Christ pastored by Elder Leland Germany where they heard the gospel preached, "Holiness or Hell". They were convicted, saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost and fire. This event was one that was everlasting, remembered and the rejoicing has never ceased in their souls..... A new life began for the Rices' and they have been running for Jesus ever since that time.

Jeanetta was a devout, determined and dedicated saint. She completed a course in the field of nursing and was known as the "praying Nurse" to those she served for over fifteen years in her nursing career. In 1964, she assisted her husband in organizing the "Wayside Church of God in Christ" in Oakland, California> She worked tirelessly in many capacities during Kingdom work for the Lord. The church has been renamed the "rice Temple Church of God in Christ and is at the same location. She was a very kind person easily entreated and loved the saints. She was a dedicated wife, devoted mother, loving grandmother and understanding great-grandmother. She worked locally, district, state and community wise with a helping hand anywhere she could be of service. Jeanetta will be missed in so many ways by so many people. Her memories will live on for she has left footprints in the sand of time. Her health became impaired several years ago, but she never lost courage or faith in her saviour, for she knew in the darkest hour he was by her side.

On Sunday July 7, 1996, the lord called her home to the place of rest and peace, where sorrow or pain will never come. She leaves to celebrate her homegoing, a devoted, caring and loving husband, Supt. James Rice of Oakland, one son; Richard Rice of Sacramento, CA, three daughters; Jamesetta Watson of Oakland, Debra Rice of Fairfield, CA and Denise Rice of San Leandro, CA. Twelve grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, one daughter-in law, Mrs. Richard Rice, one son -in- law Gerald Watson of Oakland, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives, a loving church family "the Rice Temple Family."
